He has published over 500 articles, three successful golf instructional DVD's and has been an invited guest speaker on The Golf Channel, Peter Kessler's "Making the Turn" on Sirius Radio, as well as John Oakley on Talk 640 Radio in Toronto. He was a headline guest speaker alongside the late Ken Venturi and Billy Casper, as well as, long drive champion Jason Zubeck and renown coach Hank Haney, at Golf Consumer Golf Shows throughout the USA.

Terry is a graduate of BGSU of Ohio, where he attended on a hockey, track and field scholarship. He graduated with a BSc in Physical Education and was honored as a NCAA student athlete.

While playing the Canadian Tour, Terry established The Canadian Tournament Players Division and has had both a successful competitive and coaching career. Through his mentoring "The Doc", as he is best known, has guided many students to successful professional careers in both golf and business.

His most admired contribution to learning is his ability to analyze a flawed golf swing or thought, then make the appropriate "simple" correction. Over the years, Terry has combined his successful competitive career, educational background, Christian upbringing and 45+ years of coaching dedication, to develop the system that helps one discover the most elusive aspect of golf: CONSISTENCY!
